Russia.—The value of the paper currency in relation to gold is now fixed.

Austria.—A new gold currency has lately been introduced. One krone (present currency) = ½ florin (old currency).

In France, Belgium, Switzerland, Italy, and Greece, 5 franc pieces are legal tender in each country, irrespective of the country of origin. Smaller Italian coins only pass in their own country; French, Belgian, Swiss, and Greek small silver coins pass indiscriminately, but not the copper or nickel centimes.

Spain.—The silver and paper currency is depreciated at present, and is subject to considerable fluctuations in value.
